Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't suppose a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you want.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations and for less purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve-line it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

A BIG PIE FOR TAFT.

Two mince pies, either of which would throw into the shade "the kind mother made," were baked yesterday in New York and will be presented, the larger to President Taft and the smaller to Mayor-elect Gaynor, for Thanksgiving. The pie for the president was shipped last night to Washington. The Taft pie, which is the largest ever baked in this country, is 25 inches in diameter, three inches in depth and weighs 50 pounds. It was made by the Wagner Pastry Company, of Newark, N. J., was put in an oven 40 by 55 inches, and baking concluded at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The pie for Judge Gaynor is 12 inches in diameter, one inch in depth and was baked by the Co-operative Pie Baking Company, of New York. A committee representing the Pie Bakers' Union are carrying the Taft pie to Washington, where they will formally present it to the president.

Every article put into the Taft pie was carefully inspected by a committee of experts before it was favorably passed on. The ingredients consist of 25 pounds of raisins, half a gallon of brandy, a peck of greening apples, three pounds of selected prunes, five pounds of prime beef, lemon, citron and other things. The oven door had to be taken off to admit the big 25 inch plate to the heat, and the hottest fire that ever burned in the Wagner shop. Half a barrel of the finest flour was used in making the crust, top and bottom. Half a dozen expert bakers were in constant attendance on the pie while it was in course of baking. A loaf of bread 15 feet long, three feet wide and two feet deep was baked once, but no pie the size of the one sent to President Taft was ever attempted before.

WOMEN PLAYED POLIOY.

Twenty-five shabbily clad men and women were playing penny policy in a smoke-filled, snelly room back of Andrew H. Michael's saloon, on Eighty-fifth street, New York, yesterday afternoon, when raiders broke in.

Some of the women who were playing had nursing babies in their arms and the cries of the infants mingled with the sobs of the mothers as Superintendent Hamilton, of the Goddard Antipolice Society, and several detectives smashed down a door and jumped in.

The players quieted down considerably when they found out that they were to be let go. The raiders arrested a man who said he was Henry Underdollar and who appeared to be in charge of the game. They took him, with a basketful of evidence in the form of slips and sheets to the Harlem police court.

When Mr. Hamilton described for Magistrate Herrman, the class of players he had found in the place and added that the highest wagers recorded had been seven cents, the magistrate told the prisoner he was sorry he could not hold him for grand larceny. He could, however, hold him to the grand jury in bonds of $2,000, and then he did.

UNION OF MILLIONS.

A quiet wedding at the Hotel St. Regis, New York, yesterday, united two American fortunes estimated at $10,000,000 and $20,000,000 respectively.

The bride was Mrs. William Hayes Chapman, whom numerous foreign noblemen sought in vain to wed, and the bridegroom is Philip Van Valkenburg, of New York, a descendant of an old Dutch family, whose personal fortune is estimated at $20,000,000. The new Mrs. Van Valkenburg is the widow of a Brooklyn drygoods merchant.

Mrs. Van Valkenburg is well known in London and Paris, and only recently returned to this country from abroad. At the time it was reported that she was betrothed to General Spridovich, of the Russian army.

CRITICIZES THE CHURCH.

That America is in a worse state of class consciousness and social stratification than England, that the churches are wasting time over details of creed and ritual instead of being the leaders in declaring those spiritual principles which are the guidance of society was declared by the Rev. Charles Williams, Episcopal Bishop of Michigan, in an address in Kansas City, Monday night. "The masses are leaving the church because the church does not concern itself with the vital questions of the masses," he said. "We have no right to turn away a beggar because his breath smells of whiskey and then welcome into the front pew a wealthy debauchee because he helps support the church."

Shake off the grip of your old enemy, Nasal Catarrh, by using Ely's Cream Balm. Then will all the swelling and soreness be driven off of the tender, inflamed membranes. The use of sneezing will cease and the discharge, as offensive to others as to yourself, will be stopped when the cause that produces it is removed. Cleanliness, comfort and renewed health by the use of Cream Balm. Sold by all druggists for 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Bros., 50 Warren street, New York.

The first minute after a fire starts is the most critical time, and the "Columbia" Extinguisher being always ready for use, make you master of the situation. E. S. LEAD BEATER & SONS.

Beautiful New Coats and Capes.

A COAT—or any kind of garment, no matter how elaborately designed, cannot be a success unless made of the proper material. We want to lay especial emphasis on this fact, as all garments found in our stock are absolutely correct, in fabric, in shape, and in tailoring.

Some items worthy of special attention: Coats for Autos, Street, and Traveling wear—of handsome All-wool English Mixtures, Broadwale Diagonals, and Plain Colored Cloths. The semi-fitting style has shawl collar, finished with velvet, and the loose effect is finished with tailored collar, brightened by buttons.

Black Caracul on 1 Plush Coats are also shown in many new and original styles—and these are much favored garments this season; "3-4" and "7-8" lengths, made semi-fitting and lined with rich satin and finished with buttons.

Priced from $15 to $65.

Street and Evening Capes are shown in many rich and becoming effects; none of these little touches that add so much style have been forgotten. They are made of fine chiffon and broadwale, in navy blue, peacock blue, gray and oxblood. Two styles, the circular and the plaider, the former is lined with silk and has gold braided collar, the latter has pretty braided yoke.

Also the "Hudson-Fulton" Capes in all the desired colors.

Priced from $25 to $42.50.
